A $1,000 Bet.

A report reached Orden on Thursday night that a boy had been our over by the ears and killed at Echo; that he was about stateen years paid by C. H. Purcell and Hen Denglass for inchighing in a "scrap" on Twenty-louth street early in Taursday morning. Donglass soon found the "misky" but Purcell was unable to do so. Hen sadd in court that he was went to Mad den's salcous with a hack for the purpose of tak ing home a man who had been wursted in a game of fasterille a short time before. The Individual in question did not at once accept the friendly advise of Hen and sy home, and it was while the laster was trying his native eloquence on the stobborn one that Purcell interfered and began to use vite language towards Douglabs. Hen stood it for some time but, at last leading pstience, sent one in straight from the shoulder, which had the effect of landing Purcell through Corey Bruthers' window. Purcell selmowhelges he had no right to have Interfered. and feels sorry that it ever happened.

Commissioner Cross held a preliminary examination in the case of Joseph A. A. Bunst, who had been arrested at Echo on the old, old charge.

Mr. D. Evans appeared for the prosecution, and E. M. Allous had the interests of Banot debendant under his missignment. Deputy McCielled apprehended the defendant. It carried out in evidence that Blund had three wives, the direct being dead. The alleged second was in court, and the commissioner held over the defendant to await the action of the grand jury of the Third district court. The honds being placed at $1,000. Charles filley and the second wife serve held over each in $200 bonds.
